Wednesday, May 4, 2016

Agenda Item 4a

Charter Amendment Topics

Amendments via Citizen Petitions (#30b)

Executive Summary:

The topic, Amendments via Citizen Petitions, was submitted and discussed in the April 6 and April 20 CRC meetings.

The portion remaining to be discussed involves the restrictions around collecting signatures for petitions. Should the restrictions be removed or modified?

Currently, the Charter states that:

- No more than 40% of those registered electors signing petitions shall reside in any one at-large county commission district.
- No more than 30% of those registered electors signing petitions shall reside in any one single-member county commission district.

Documents for Review:

Agenda Item 4b

Charter Amendment Topics

Fiscal Impact Study (#31)

Executive Summary:

Today, the Pinellas County Charter does not require analysis on the fiscal impact of a charter amendment. Should the Charter be amended to require a study and inclusion of the fiscal impact in the proposed ballot language for each proposed charter amendment?
