

The Family Housing Assistance Program (FHAP) is designed to assist working families with case management services, housing search, move-in and rental assistance for a short-term period. Referrals to increased employment opportunities, education, child care and other comprehensive services are key program components as families stabilize and work towards self-sufficiency.

If you are homeless and living in a shelter or motel* (*see Documentation Needed)

and you are working

at least 25 hours of verifiable employment per week, and have custody of minor children in your household, and you are willing to participate in a coordinated effort to work with our staff towards a pathway to self-sufficiency.

then

Call the St. Petersburg office at (727) 582-7781, or the Clearwater office at (727) 464-8400 for more information, click FHAP for further details and a program application.
