

Building a Better Pinellas

Public Input Open Houses

On Nov. 7, 2017, Pinellas County voters will decide on a 10-year renewal of the Penny for Pinellas 1-percent sales tax, from 2020-2030. Before the referendum vote, the Board of County Commissioners is seeking citizen input on the most important areas to invest future funds throughout the community.

The public is invited to provide input at three open house meetings:

- WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15, 6-8 PM
The Centre
1500 16th St., Palm Harbor, FL 34683
- MONDAY, MARCH 20, 6-8 PM
Historic Gulfport Casino
5500 Shore Blvd. S., Gulfport, FL 33707
- WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 6-8 PM
Pinellas County Extension
12520 Ulmerton Road, Largo, FL 33774

The Penny for Pinellas funds long-term, capital investments such as improved roads, bridges and trails, water quality and flood prevention, public safety equipment and vehicles, fire stations, parks and environmental land acquisition, and land for housing that is accessible to our citizens at all income levels. We look forward to hearing from you.
