Lealman CRA Advisory Committee public participation and decorum rules

Decorum for virtual meetings

- Please be respectful of others' opinions, and refrain from making personal attacks. Any person who becomes disorderly or who fails to confine remarks to the identified subject or business at hand shall be cautioned by the Chair and given the opportunity to conclude remarks on the subject in a decorous manner and within the designated time limit. Any person failing to comply as cautioned may be barred from making any additional comments during the meeting by the Chair, unless permission to continue or again address the Committee is granted by the majority of the Committee members present.
- If the Chair or Committee declares a virtual participant to be out of order, he or she may be muted by the moderator.
- All remarks shall be addressed to the Committee as a body and not to any member thereof.
- No person, other than a member of the Committee and the person having the floor, may be permitted to enter into any discussion, either directly or through a member of the Committee, without permission of the Chair. No question may be asked except through the Chair.
- Speakers should make their comments concise and to the point.

Public comment procedures

Participants may speak for up to three (3) minutes on the item through the virtual meeting webinar or call-in phone number. At the appropriate time during the meeting, instructions will be given to those on the webinar or on the phone how to indicate that they wish to speak. When called on to comment, you must state and spell your name, and say your address, before commenting.
